County Clerk C.H.

Belleville

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours of yesterday about the footing of column 20 in the copy of 1901 assessment roll I would say, that as near as I can make out the assessors' figures he only accounts for 995. This is away off, in fact the 1901 figures were not up to the mark at 1060 and then there was quite an increase especially in Bancroft village - that is not accounted for. There should be about 1400. I estimated it at 1250 in my report to the Bureau of Industries.

I have had two bad rolls 1900 and 1901. This year we have two assessors, both sober and I hope to have a good one, but valuations are a little extravagant.

Yours respectfully

John Bremner
Clerk S. P. Faraday
